Dear IGSL Member / Geologist,

CPD Training on “Contract Administration and Procurement” offered by the Institute of Geology Sri Lanka (IGSL)

I am pleased to inform you that the Institute of Geology, Sri Lanka (IGSL) has decided to offer a Continuing Professional Development (CPD) training programme on “Contract Administration and Procurement”. This training programme will be held at the Oak Ray Regency in Kandy on 06th and 07th July 2018 and Mr. Sanath Fernando and Mr. Ajith Gurullawala, Chartered Engineers of the IESL and experts in project management and procurement, will be the resource persons.

As you are already aware, IGSL members should complete this type of CPD training programmes in order to enhance their soft, managerial and professional skills before they become qualified as a Chartered Geologist of the Institute, as stipulated in regulations. Besides, current Chartered Geologists of the IGSL can also avail this opportunity to participate in this training programme. Therefore, the IGSL decided to open this CPD programme to any geologist, particularly, prospective members of the IGSL, prospective chartered geologists and even to current chartered geologists.

A nominal course fee of Rs. 10000.00 will be charged per participant, which will include buffet lunches and snacks for two days, workshop dinner and course material. A certificate of participation will be awarded to the participants who will successfully complete this training. If you wish to participate in this training programme, please apply using the specimen application attached in this notice on or before 30th June 2018.

Thanking you.
